EPIC International Board of Directors
Amlak Tafari

Amlak Tafari is an English born Jamaican who is also known as the International Reggae Am-BASS-Ador. He has a 1st Class (Hons) degree in Popular Music, a Master of Arts degree in Musicology, and is the founder of Yellow Wall Productions music and mentoring projects. Amlak has performed around the world with various bands and is currently the bassist for the Grammy winning band Steel Pulse. In addition, he conducts workshops, hosts music shows, and composes and performs music in various venues. Amlak has been on the Board of Directors at EPIC since 2013.